SUMMARY

Hi there! I am a political psychologist at CEVIPOF, Sciences Po Paris, with a background in political science, cognitive science and social psychology. I conduct cross-cultural experiments and develop theory to explore how people reason and communicate about sociopolitical topics. I'm in particular interested in the cognitive foundations and social goals of the following phenomena: fake news and conspiracy theories endorsement and spread, group-based biases, moralization processes, the politicization of scientific topics, the repression of speech on societal issues, how to make political conversations more productive, and cultural conservatism.

My peer-reviewed articles are presented below. They have appeared in Nature Human Behavior, the European Journal Of Social Psychology, Political communication, PNAS Nexus, Nature Communications, Current Opinion In Psychology, Behavioral Public Policy, EMBO Reports, Annals of the New York Academy of Sciences and The Journal of Computational Social Science, among others.

I teach political psychology and experimental design for psychology and social science.

I am a strong advocate of open science for both ethical and scientific reasons. I post all my data, R scripts, materials, and pre-register my studies on the Open science framework website (OSF). I also make all my papers open access on my website and on OSF, and when this is possible, from the journals as well.

I also value science communication. I have written multiple articles of science popularization and recorded podcasts since my Ph.D. My audiences have been the public (The New York Times, The Conversation, The Dissenter, La Tronche en biais, Character and Context (SPSP)), and policy makers (Ministere francais des Armées).

EDUCATION

2017-2021

Ph.D. in cognitive science (political psychology specialization) with full marks and honors from Université de Paris. Host labs: Institut Jean Nicod, Ecole Normale Supérieure, PSL Research

University & Cognitions Humaine et Artificielle (CHArt). (Doctoral school: Center for Research and Interdisciplinarity, Université de Paris)

Supervision: Jean Baratgin (Université Paris 8 Vincennes Saint-Denis) and Brent Strickland (CNRS, Institut Jean Nicod, Ecole Normale Supérieure, EHESS, PSL)

2017

Master's degree (M2) in Cognitive Psychology, University Paris 8 Vincennes Saint-Denis-Ecole Pratique des Hautes Etudes (cum laude)

2016

Master's degree (M2) in Sociology, Sciences Po's Doctoral School (Sciences Po Paris' research program)

2014

Master's degree (M1) in Philosophy, University Paris Nanterre (cum laude)

2012-2013

Study year at the Department of philosophy, Rutgers University, New Jersey, U.S.A.
Undergraduate degree, Sciences Po Paris

2010

Admission at entry exam to Sciences Po Paris (baccalauréat +0)
Highschool final exam (French baccalauréat) with summa cum laude ('Mention très bien'), Lycée Corneille, Rouen, France

EMPLOYMENT

2025-2027

Postdoctoral research fellow at CEVIPOF, Sciences Po, funded by an ANR Access ERC grant.
I am my own Principal Investigator on this grant. Mentor: Kevin Arceneaux, Professor of Political science at Sciences Po.

2024-2025

Postdoctoral research fellow at Institut Jean Nicod, CNRS-ENS-EHESS-PSL
Principal Investigator: Olivier Morin, CNRS researcher.

2021-2024

Postdoctoral research fellow on the "Research on Online Political Hostility" project ("ROPH") at the Department of Political Science, Aarhus University, Aarhus, Denmark.
Principal Investigator: Michael Bang Petersen, Professor. 3 years employment.

RESEARCH VISITING STAYS

2026

Invited scholar for one month at University of New South Wales, Sydney, Australia, January 2026

2024-25

Invited scholar in political psychology at the Centre de Recherches Politiques (CEVIPOF, Sciences Po Paris), academic year 2024-25

2020

Visiting scholar for four months at the School of Collective Intelligence, Université Mohammed VI Polytechnique, Ben Guérir, Morocco.

International Collaboration on the Social & Moral Psychology of COVID-19

At the peak of the Covid-19 pandemic, more than 200 researchers joined their forces behind Jay Van Bavel to run the biggest international collaboration in social and moral psychology ever. I was team leader of data collection in France, as well as Morocco and Senegal, which were among the very few African countries covered. The three papers and the scientific blog post below emerged from this large-scale collaboration. The website of the international collaboration is here.

ETHNOGRAPHIC FIELD EXPERIENCES

2026

Ethnographic study of Sydney citizen residents' social perceptions of the causes and consequences of the Bondi Beach jihadi terrorist attacks of mid-December 2025 in Sydney, Australia. I interviewed about N=35 long term Sydney residents from diverse demographic categories in audio-recorded, semi-structured interviews to explore their perceptions of the motivations of jihadi terrorists, the repercussions on Australian politics and group relations, and the role of social media. The preregistration of the study can be found here. The paper is in preparation.

2016

Ethnographic observations over a 4-months period and 15 in-depth interviews of the professional activities of corporate coaches, during my master's in sociology. My investigation and interviews focused on coaches' uses of 'personal development' knowledge in the way they deal with issues of burn out, meaninglessness, and career strategy among private corporation executives.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Political psychology - Syllabus example linked here \(changes over the years\)

2026

‘The mind and politics: introduction to political psychology’: semester-long undergraduate seminar in English for students at Sciences Po Paris

2024-25

Political psychology and political behavior: semester-long undergraduate course in French for students at Paris Sciences et Lettres (PSL) (90 hours; validation based on writing of an empirical research project and an oral exam)

2022, 2024

Political psychology and political behavior: semester-long master's course in English for political science, psychology and other social sciences students at Aarhus University (210 hours; validation based on writing of an empirical research project and an oral exam)

2017-19

Introduction to political psychology to master's students in psychology in French, Ecole Pratique des Hautes Etudes & Université Paris 8 Vincennes Saint-Denis (50 hours in total).

Research methods for psychology - Syllabus linked here

2025-26

Research methods for social science and psychology: I accompanied the writing of six research projects for a course asking undergraduate students to design their first empirical research project. The project included designing an online experimental or observational study in Lime Survey, data collection, and data analysis by the students, and presentation of the question, methods and findings in a 6-pages research report. Université de Nantes (35 hours in total)

2020

Research methods for social science and psychology: workshop in English on experimental design, replicable science and statistics for psychology for 1st year Ph.D. students at the School of Collective Intelligence, Université Mohammed VI Polytechnique, Morocco (50 hours in total).

SUPERVISION EXPERIENCE

2026

Ofelia Akofian: Supervision of an internship on political polarization and political attitudes, Ecole Normale Supérieure. Ofelia did bibliographic research on the cognitive foundations of political polarization and wrote a mémoire reviewing the literature in psychology and social science.

2024

Ines Zerda: Supervision of an internship on the social functions of speech restriction, Paris Sciences et Lettres. Ines did bibliographic research on the topic and wrote a mémoire reviewing the literature. I used her bibliographic research to write one of my own papers.

2022-23

Christian Bjørnholt Hjorth: Supervision of a scientific article drawing on his bachelor's dissertation, Aarhus University. Christian then left the project which led to this manuscript: Marie, A. & Xiao, H. (under review). From Parenting to Prejudice: The Association Between Parenthood and Anti-Immigration Sentiments in 38 nations. OSF Preprint: <https://osf.io/preprints/osf/4scvg>

2022

Line Duus Jacobsen: Supervision of master's dissertation, Aarhus University. Line wrote a master's dissertation on disgust and its influence on political attitudes, which I supervised and graded.

2020

Supervision of 5 experimental projects from Ph.D. students at Université Mohammed VI Polytechnique, Morocco

2019

Ahmed Elkosair: Co-supervision of master's dissertation project with Jean Baratgin, University Paris 8-EPHE. Ahmed ran two experimental studies and wrote a dissertation on the illusion of understanding in politics (the fact most people overestimate their understanding of the workings of public policies), under my supervision.
